

Tell us what you think

Part 3. You tell a person about the violence

It can be hard to tell a person about the violence.

We want to know

- what you did

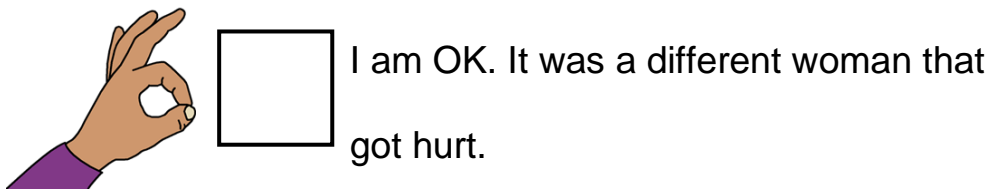

and

- what happened.

1. Did you tell a person when you were hurt?

Go to Part 5. Speak Up. Make it right.

2. Who did you tell?

Tick any that are right for you.

• family

or

• friend

• a place that can help you. Like

• a service for women

or

• a disability service

• a therapist you can talk to

• a person at work

• a doctor

• police

• a different person.

_____ .

3. How did you tell them?

<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
-------------------------------------	--------------------------	-------------------------------------

Tick any that are right for you.

• met them. Talked to them

• talked on the phone

• sent an email

• other. What did you do?

4. What happened for you?

Tick any that are right for you.

The person believed you.

You got help to be safe.

Like you moved house.

You got help with how you feel.

Like got help to talk to a therapist.

You got money from the Court.

You got help. It is new help.

Every thing stayed the same.

Nothing changed.

5. What happened to the person who hurt you?

Tick any that are right for you.

The person had to leave

- your home

or

- your work.

The person went to

- Court
- jail.

People important to you told the person they did something wrong.

The person had to say sorry to you.

None of these things.

6. Was it hard to tell a person what happened to you?

Yes.

No.

Go to Part 5. Speak Up. Make it right.

7. What made it hard to tell them?

Tick any that are right for you.

You felt scared.

You did not know who to tell.

You think every thing will stay the same.

Like the person will still hit you.

You did not feel safe.

The other person did not believe you.

No one under stood you.

Like they did not speak your language.

The person did not understand about your disability.

Like you need help to get dressed.

Other. Can you tell us?

8. What stopped you telling a person?

Tick any that are right for you.

You felt scared.

You felt embarrassed.

You were not ready to tell.

You did not want the person to get in trouble.

You do not trust different places.

Like you do not feel safe to go to

- the police
- doctors.

You think you may lose your children.

Other. Can you tell us?

9. A person was violent to you.

You want to tell a person.

What will make this

- safe to do
- easy to do?

Write what you think.

Go to Part 4. About the help you got